MRS. HATFIELD SABINA, OHIO

In Pitiable Condition When She Began Taking Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound

Sabina, Ohio.—"I took Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound for weakness and irregularity. I was weak and nervous and could hardly stand on my feet long enough to cook a meal. I was this way for about a year and had tried several medicines and had a physician, but to no avail. My sister was taking your medicine and finally induced me to try it. I now feel fine and can do my housework without any trouble at all. You can use this letter for the sake of others if you wish."—Mrs. WELDON G. HATFIELD, R. 3, Sabina, Ohio.

Housewives make a great mistake in allowing themselves to become so weak and nervous that it is well-nigh impossible for them to attend to their necessary household duties.

Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound should be taken when you first notice such symptoms as nervousness, backache, weakness and irregularity. It will help you and prevent more serious trouble.

MISS WILSON'S ENGAGEMENT IS RUMORED IN WASHINGTON

Daughter of Former President, Society Hears, Will Wed William Kennelly, of New York, Escort in Paris During Peace Negotiations.

[Written for The Times-Dispatch.] WASHINGTON, July 3.—Washington society and the diplomatic corps will figure in two international weddings which are announced to take place in August outside the capital.

Captain Sidney H. Bailey, naval attaché of the British embassy, and Miss Mildred Bromwell, daughter of Mrs. Charles Bromwell, of Washington, will be married August 15 at Charlevoix, Mich. Captain Bailey is to represent his ambassador at the Brazilian Centennial Exposition next month, and the trip to Brazil will constitute the honeymoon of the newlyweds.

The date for the second wedding has not yet been announced. It is that of Miss Elizabeth Howe, daughter of Mrs. Emerson Howe, of New York and Washington, and Dr. Alfredo Gonzales Prado, secretary of the Peruvian embassy.

The Peruvian ambassador and Señora de Prado are entertained for Dr. Prado and Miss Howe at a dinner Friday evening July 28, which also celebrated the anniversary of Peru's independence day.

Engagement of Miss Wilson. Engagement of Miss Margaret Wilson, daughter of former President Woodrow Wilson, to William Kennelly, of the Bryan L. Kennelly Real Estate Company, New York, is rumored here. Mr. Kennelly, a major in the A. E. F., was Miss Wilson's personal escort while President Wilson and his party were in Paris for the peace negotiations.

The Vice-President and Mrs. Coolidge are spending the week in Boston, before leaving for California to attend the American Bar Association meeting.

Two widely separated events are interesting Washington just now. One is the Institute of Politics, in session at Williamsburg, Mass., and the other the approaching Brazilian Centennial Exposition, at which Secretary of State Hughes will represent the United States government.

The United States Navy will be represented by the Creadonoughs Maryland and Nevada, and the commission headed by Mr. Hughes will include Major-General Robert L. Bullard, Rear-Admiral Hilary P. Jones, Representative Stephen G. Porter, chairman of the House Committee on Foreign Affairs, and Cyrus H. K. Curtis of Philadelphia.

At the Institute of Politics, which is being attended by many people prominent in Washington official life, the round-table discussion of Central American affairs is conducted by Dr. L. S. Rowe, director of the Pan-American Union.

Marshalls Are Entertained. Former Vice-President and Mrs. Thomas R. Marshall, who have left Washington after a brief stay on their way home from a European trip, were entertained extensively while here. On Wednesday they were luncheon guests at the White House and on Tuesday the Senate ladies gave an informal luncheon for Mrs. Marshall. They were also entertained at a party at Justice McKeen's of the Supreme Court, and by Mrs. Thomas F. Walsh.

For Thin Waists and Sleeveless Gowns

A safe, certain method for ridding the skin of ugly, hairy growths in as follows: Mix a paste with some powdered talcum and water, apply to hairy surface about 2 minutes, then rub off, wash the skin and the hairs are gone. This is entirely harmless and seldom requires repeating, but to avoid disappointment it is advisable to see that you get genuine depilatory. Mix fresh as wanted.—Ad.
